LIBRARY ENTERTAINMENT.

C. E. Douglas will be seen as a Magician and Illusionist.

There are very many in Scranton and particularly in Green Ridge who will remember with pleasure Charles E. Douglas in connection with former entertainments given in the early struggle for existence of the Green Ridge library.

Although this same little library is courageously stemming the tide, brave in its knowledge of the good work being done in the right direction, much effort by those who have so long patiently guided the little craft ere it can reach the haven where it would be and calmly ride at anchor free from debt, and to this end it is earnestly requested by the management that there be a generous attendance at the library on Tuesday next when Mr. Douglas will give an entertainment.

They Will Hold Their State Encampment at Hazleton.

The state encampment of the Sons of Veterans will open in Hazleton on Tuesday morning to continue for the remainder of the week.
